A BRAND NEW VIEW

in "62"

HIGH SCHOOL

As new inventions in science, industry, atomic warfare, and every day life develop, so must we strive to meet new standards.

The Memory Lane Staff for "62" has tried to create and dedicate this book with a "Brand New View." Our Miss Memory Lane will suffice as an example of bringing in the new.

Yes, our freshmen have been a new view too. They have come to W.H.S. for the first time and will share the memories we have. They will also receive many ideas for new traditions and carry on the spirit of Washington that has kept it one of the best.

"Miss Memory Lane" Crowned For First

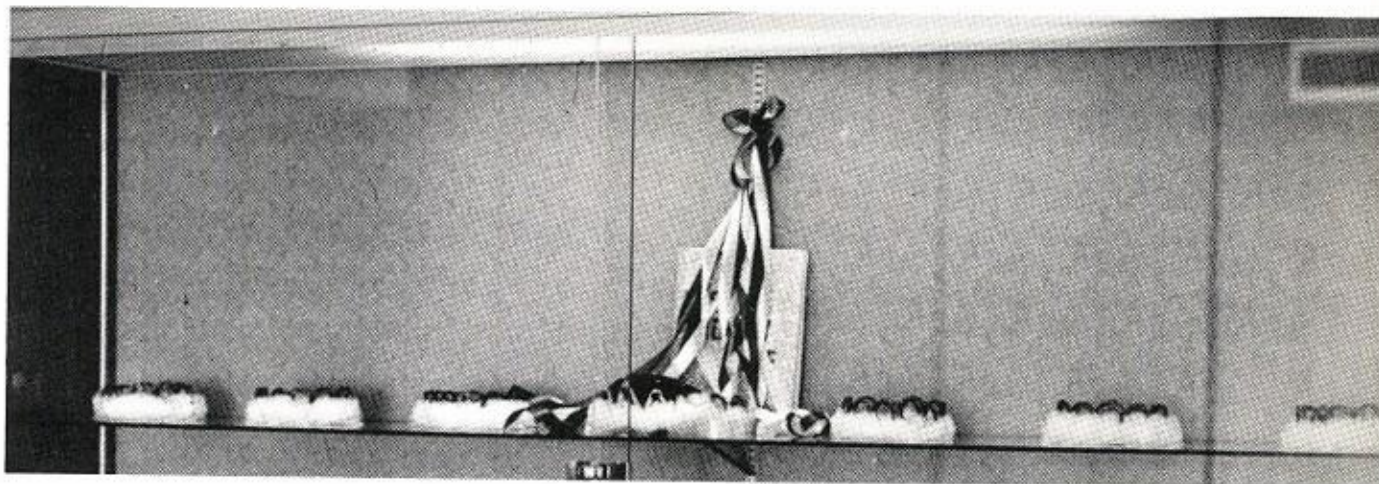

A new tradition began at Washington High School with the crowning of "Miss Memory Lane" on September 30, 1961. The festivities took place at the yearbook-sponsored dance held in the gymnasium amid pumpkins and corn stalks and other fall decorations. Vicki Skubis and Janice Modory were in charge of arrangements for the dance. Gloria Biebuyck was in charge of decorations, and the crowns were made by Sandy Sekendy.

At 9:00 p.m. the court was announced. Each girl wore a white mum corsage and was crowned with a glittering green crown trimmed with white fur. After the introduction of the court, the queen was announced. Jeaneen Hicks became the first "Miss Memory Lane." Jeaneen's first official duty was to select the winner of the free subscription to the "Memory Lane." Then, dancing resumed with the coronation dance led by "Miss Memory Lane" and her escort.

The queen, court, and escorts: Paul Drzewiecki, Bonnie Buda, Len Starczewski, Carol Olszewski, John Seanor, Erica Olson, Steve Sayer, "MissMemory Lane," Lorriane Swartz, Al Ridenour, Kathleen Olejniczak, Dennis Thompson, Cathy Thomas, Dennis Nemeth

.....the glittering green crowns.

in "62"

Activities is the key to a room full of memories for the year 1961-1962. As in years past, and in years to come, no other field in our curriculum will be more cherished.

Clubs always offered us many chances for activity. An example of this is the Booster Club which participated in the decorating of goal posts, selling of school buttons, and the selling of programs at the football games, all which promoted school spirit.

Plays were presented, dances were held, and courts were crowned. All this was part of the memories we would like to share with you as you leaf through Memory Lane.

ACTIVITIES

An Average Day

An average day in the life of a typical W.H.S. student begins with breakfast. If you are on a diet or trying to get into a special weight class in wrestling, your breakfast may be like that pictured on the left—the fruit juice for your sunshine vitamins and the vitamin pill, to make up for the lack of food in the meal.

After a good, healthy breakfast, the student prepares for school. Before going out to catch the bus, our devoted student takes one last look at his English assignment, then rushes to the door. He says goodbye to his parents and the next moment we find him standing on the corner waiting for the bus. The picture below was taken after a vigorous bus ride, and there's nothing like a vigorous bus ride, complete with pushing and fighting for a seat, to wake you up in the morning.

After first hour class, we look in on an assembly with the underclassmen on the bleacher deck and the juniors and seniors on the main floor, everyone showing the Washington High School spirit.

Back to class again. This one looks like a senior government class, and it's quite a contrast to the picture above. The students have temporarily discarded the excitement of the pep-assembly and returned to the daily routine.

Although the cafeteria serves many fine plate lunches, a hamburger, potato chips, and a malt can usually satisfy any student's appetite. So another nourishing meal goes by and back to class go the students.

This class looks like a boys' study hall. All interest at the moment, though, doesn't seem to be centered on studying, but rather on a student who is evidently overcome by the activities of a busy school day. Wake up, Tom, it's almost 3:15.

School's out, and look at the expressions on the faces of our students! I think they are the happiest we've seen them all day. But why shouldn't they be? This average day just happens to be a Friday, and there's a game tonight. The bus ride home is very similar to the ride to school, but because the bus is headed in the opposite direction, the over-all tone of the conversation is on the lighter side.

Linda Van Paris decided to get a little of her homework out of the way before going to the game, and we see her hard at work in the picture on the left. A telephone sure comes in handy when you aren't sure about the assignment.

Many of Washington's students use their time out of school to earn extra money. Above, Jim Badowski, a senior, is when working at a neighborhood store.

Below, the stands are filled for the evening's basketball game. Enthusiasm is at a peak as the boys try to out-yell the girls and cheer the team on.

Mike Kalb provided extra entertainment at the dance as you can see in the picture on the right. After the dance, the crowd usually meets at a nearby restaurant to prolong the evening just a little longer. Ordinary procedure seldom includes a mouth full of tea bag, but tonight was an exception. Chris Jackowiak does the honors for Cathy Hiles as Eileen Quinn, Cynthia King, and Jerry Pomush look on, amused.

The day of a typical Washington student ends on a happy note as the next one begins.

Washington's Candid Camera

Pam Hernicz walks in, unsuspecting, admit in hand.

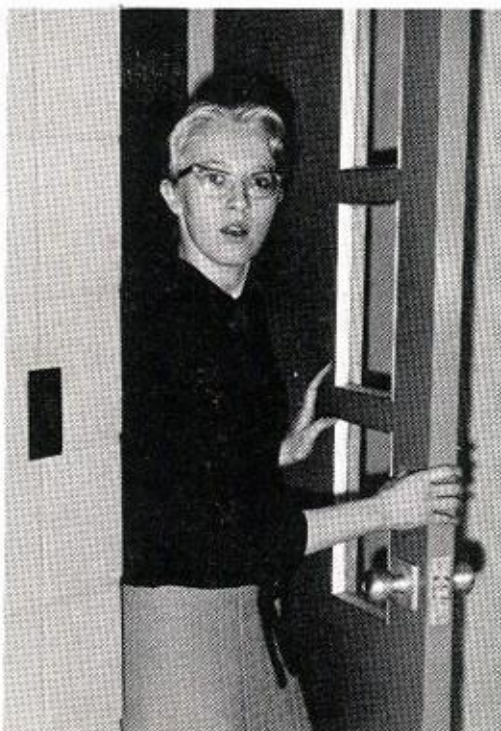

Did you ever wonder what you'd look like on Candid Camera? Well, eleven Washingtonians now know. Of course, it's not Mr. Funt's original, but we think ours is just as good.

Certain students received mysterious admits during their study hall saying simply-- "Please come to room 912 for about ten minutes." Each admit had a different time on it, and one by one the students started toward 912. Little did they know that room 912, a little vacant room near the yearbook office, had a camera waiting to catch the expression on their faces as they opened the door.

There was a variety of results and Washington's candid camera was a success.

See for yourself.

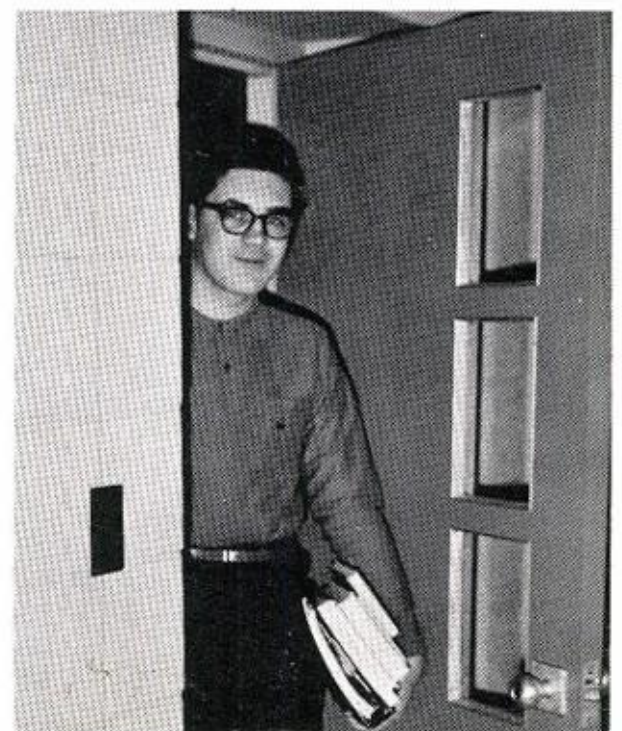

Sharon Pomush: What??!

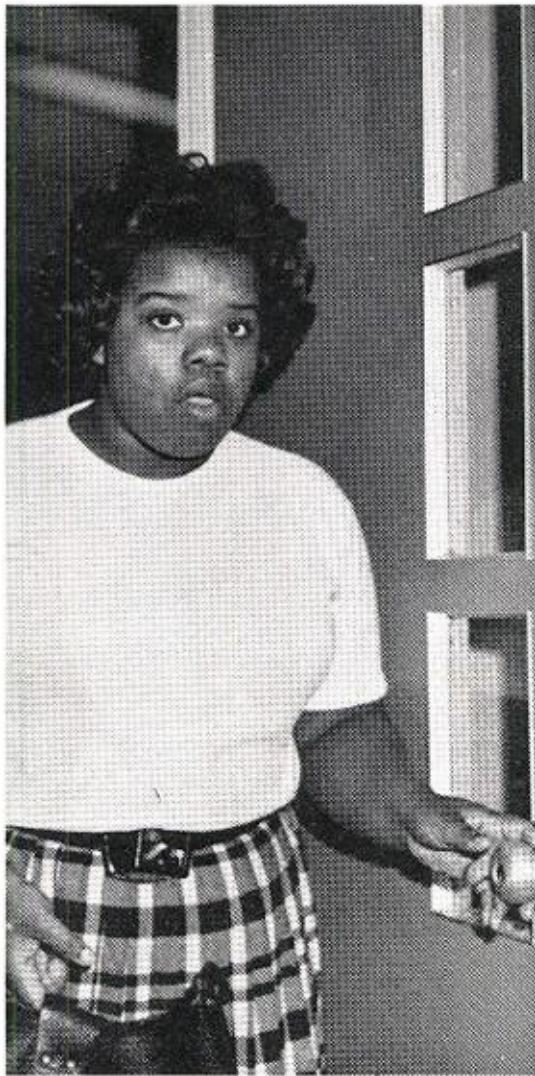

Carol Wozny: Hee hee, my picture'll be in the Yearbook. Hee hee!

Art Jaronik: Oh, for Pete's sake!

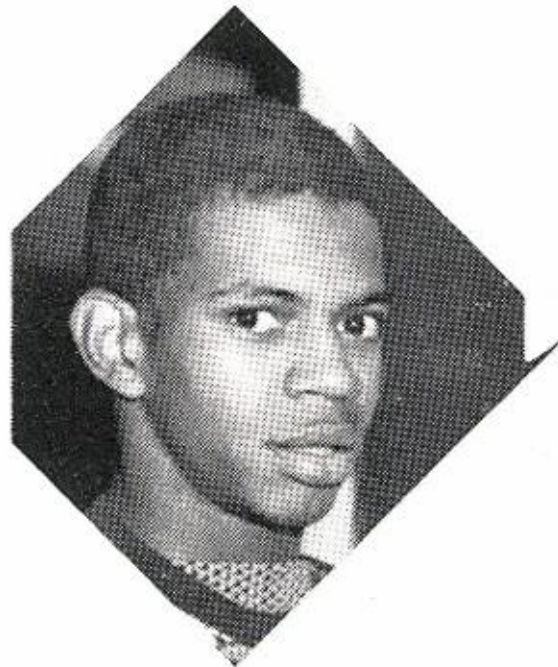

Connie Williams: What could they want me for?

Joanne Stroup: There must be some mistake.

Willie Veldman smiled--he was on Candid Camera!

Tom Haluda: Maybe if I sneak in quietly . . .

Mr. Heineman was even taken in by our stunt.

Bob Stewart: Aw oh! I thought there was something fishy about this!

Jim Burnham: If they think I did it, they're crazy!

Royalty Reigns

Over "Orchids In The Moonlight"

Amid frills and flowers the juniors danced to the music of The Eddy Knight Orchestra at their annual Junior Prom. "Orchids in the Moonlight" was held on April 29, 1961 at the Progress Club. Reigning over the Prom were Prince Richard Kraft and Princess Barbara Borowiak.

Newly Crowned Queen Accepts Crown And A Victory For Washington

Beverly Jerczak reigned as Queen of the 1962 Washington Basketball Court at the annual Washington-Central basketball game and royal festivities on January 25, 1962.

Selected from homeroom 521 to compete against six senior queen candidates, Beverly waited excitedly with the other finalists for the half time announcement that made her queen. Part of her royal duties included the traditional exchange of roses with the Central basketball queen.

The queen's court was made up of four junior girls and four senior girls and their escorts.

Arrangements for the basketball court were made by the Booster Club. Halftime announcement of the court was made by Sandy Sekendy, vice president. Vicki Skubis, president, did the crowning.

Court: Julia Dillon, Karen Cwiklinski, Queen Beverly Jerczak, Marsha Bowman, Darlene Balcerzak, Dorothy Meek, Janice Milliken, Marsha Wrobel.
Escorts: Len Starczewski, Weldon Collins, Ken Ziolkowski, Al Ridenour, Larry Schultz, Tom Forsey, Jim Dinges, Jim Kaczmarek.

Of A Senior Year Of Traditional Activities

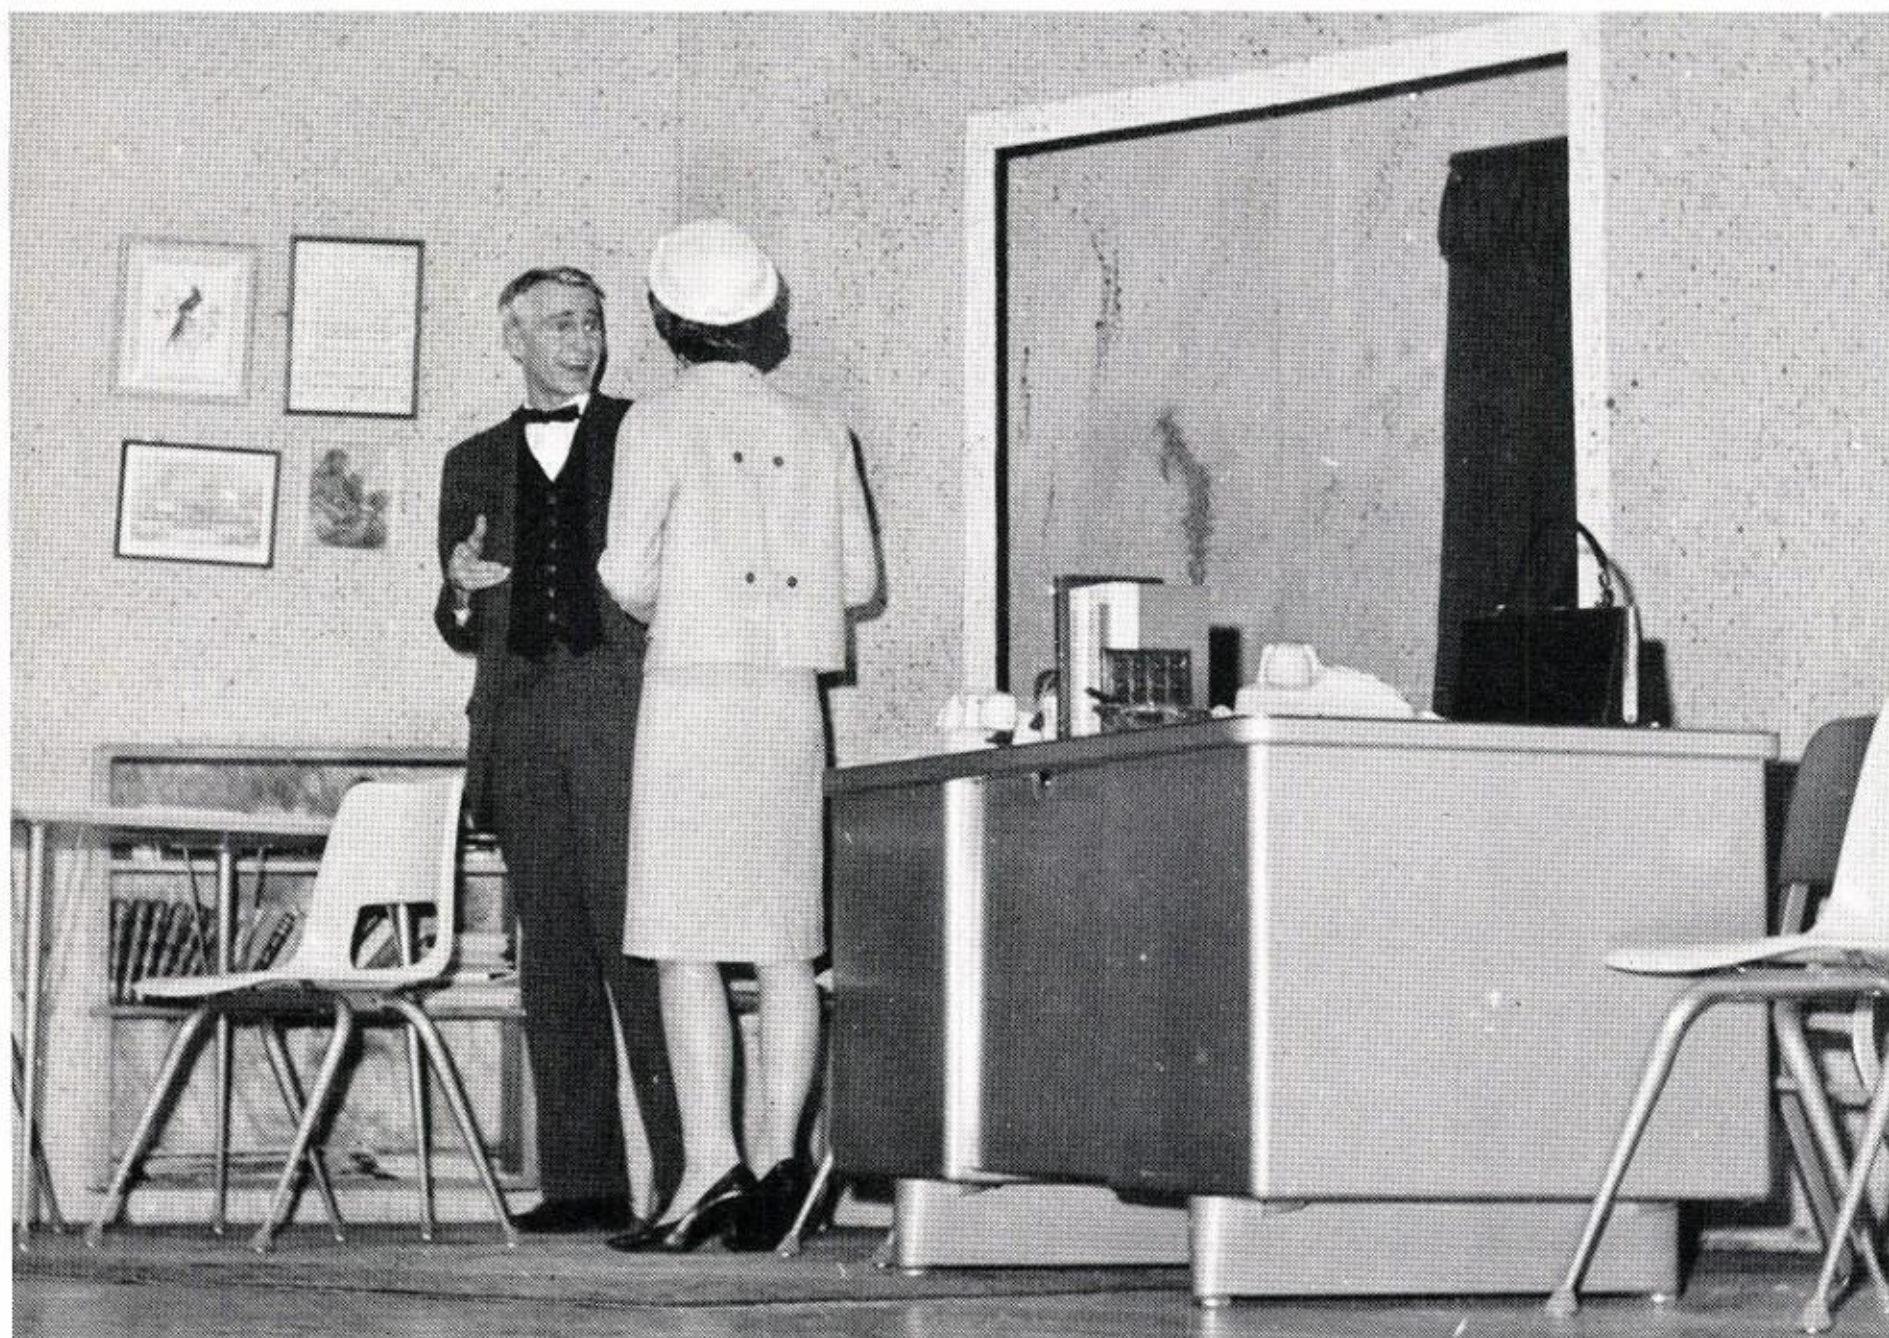

Gloria Biebuyck, a senior from homeroom 519, reigned as the Washington football queen in the 1961 Washington-Riley Roundup.

Although the staging was different, the Washington-Riley Roundup still fostered friendship and established good sportsmanship between Washington and Riley. The Roundup began on Thursday, September 14, with Riley playing host to Washington in their own back yard. Rich Kraft and the Riley football co-captains lit the bonfire which signified the spirit of the Roundup. Tension mounted as the court awaited the crowning. After speeches by Principal MacNamara, Coach Roggeman, and sports announcer Jim Wilson of WSBT, the court was announced by Len Starczewski, Student Council president, and crowned by the cheerleaders.

Drama Club presents "Harvey"

"Harvey", the mythical Pooka, was presented by the Drama Club on May 26 and 27, 1961. The Mary Chase farce was the third Drama Club production.

The action of the play concerned Elwood P. Dowd, an elderly and eccentric bachelor who lived with his sister at the Dowd family mansion. Elwood was the only person Harvey "haunted" and the ensuing circumstances caused Elwood's sister many anxieties and the audience many laughs.

Senior Christmas Party Is The Last Class Event In '61

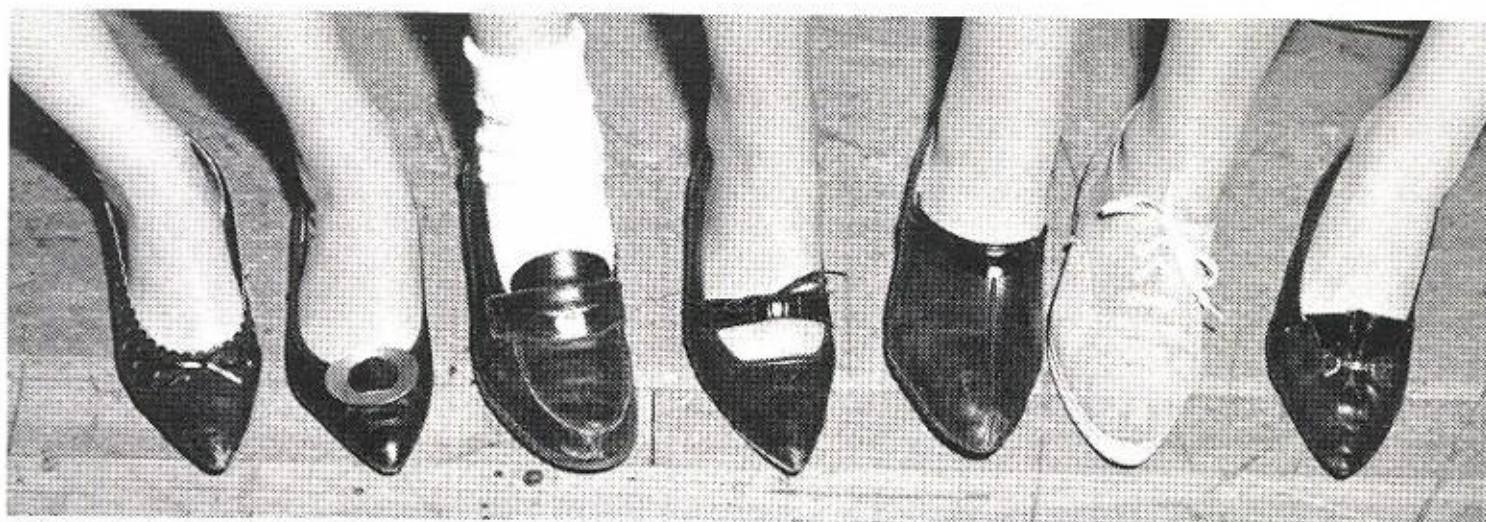

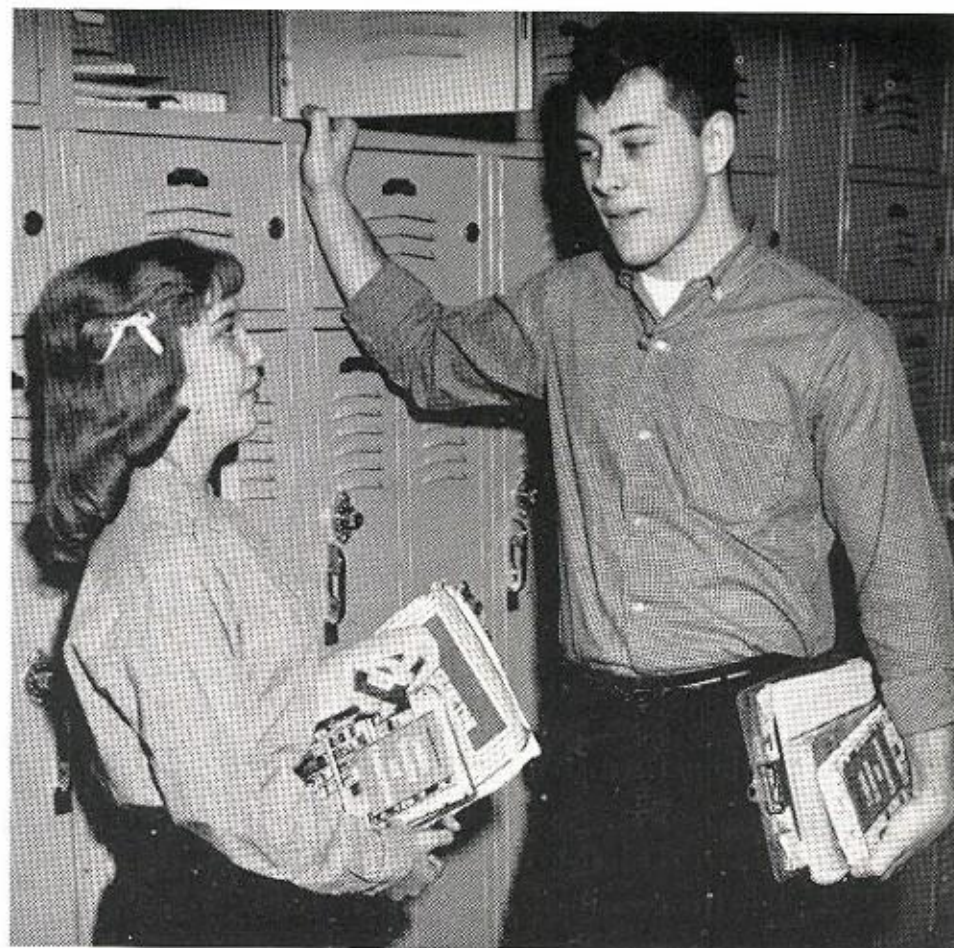

On December 8, 1961, the Senior Class Party was held in the cafeteria. Dancing was preceded by a skit in which the seniors were carried back to the days of the Wild West and Marshall Millon's Chevy City. After the skit the Seniors danced to the music of the Mark V's.

Many new styles and fads have appeared at Washington during the past year. To name just a few, there were circle pins, "bubble" hairdos, rock bracelets, leaf pins, fur hats, Liz Taylor blouses, short skirts, fur on boyfriend's rings, twist blouses, and of course, the twist, the pony, the Continental, the stomp, and even mashed potatoes.

To the right Jim Molnar and Becky Hagquist model their matching shirts, another fad that has spread among the couples at school.

Above are some of the various shoe styles the girls could be seen wearing this year.

Tom Wruble and Linda Krug stand by her locker with their matching sweaters which have come to South Bend in many different styles.

So ends a busy and exciting school year for all involved.

The Booster Club is a relatively new organization; it is in its third year.

The club's primary function is to promote school spirit and participation in school activities. Any student is eligible for membership.

Some projects sponsored by the Booster Club are selling programs, decorating goal posts for home football games, making posters, holding dances, selling buttons and mums, and organizing the Washington-Central Basketball Court. Much of the money raised from these projects is used for purchasing cheering uniforms.

Here the hosts show films introducing the students to their chosen profession, help to familiarize them with specialties of the medical field, and answer their questions. The Washington High School Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. FitzHenry, is made up of students selected from the Glee Club classes. Approximately one hundred students are selected for the large choir. Smaller, groups varying from about twenty to fifty perform for the P.T.A. and other groups throughout the city, such as business men associations, the YWCA residence halls, and church groups.

The Glee Club also has three special groups: Melloettes, an all-girl triple quartet, Mellomen, an all-boy triple quartet, and the Barber Shop Quartet. The members of these sections are selected by Mr. FitzHenry after participating in tryouts which include singing solos, sight reading, and blending voices with other singers. These groups rehearse in the mornings at 7:30 a.m. two days a week.

The governing body of the Glee Club is the Glee Club Board. The Board consists of four members of each class and meets either during homeroom or before evening rehearsals.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Heineman, Washington High School formed its first successful cheerblock. This group, all girls, consisted of 53 active members who displayed their talents during the 1961-1962 basketball season, at the assemblies and games. Their uniforms consisted of white blouses accented by green bows at the collar and white gloves. We wish continued success to this new organization which promoted strong school spirit.

Thank you Mr. Heineman, Mr. VanGilder, and homeroom 915!!!

VICTORIES MANY, LOSSES FEW

in "62"

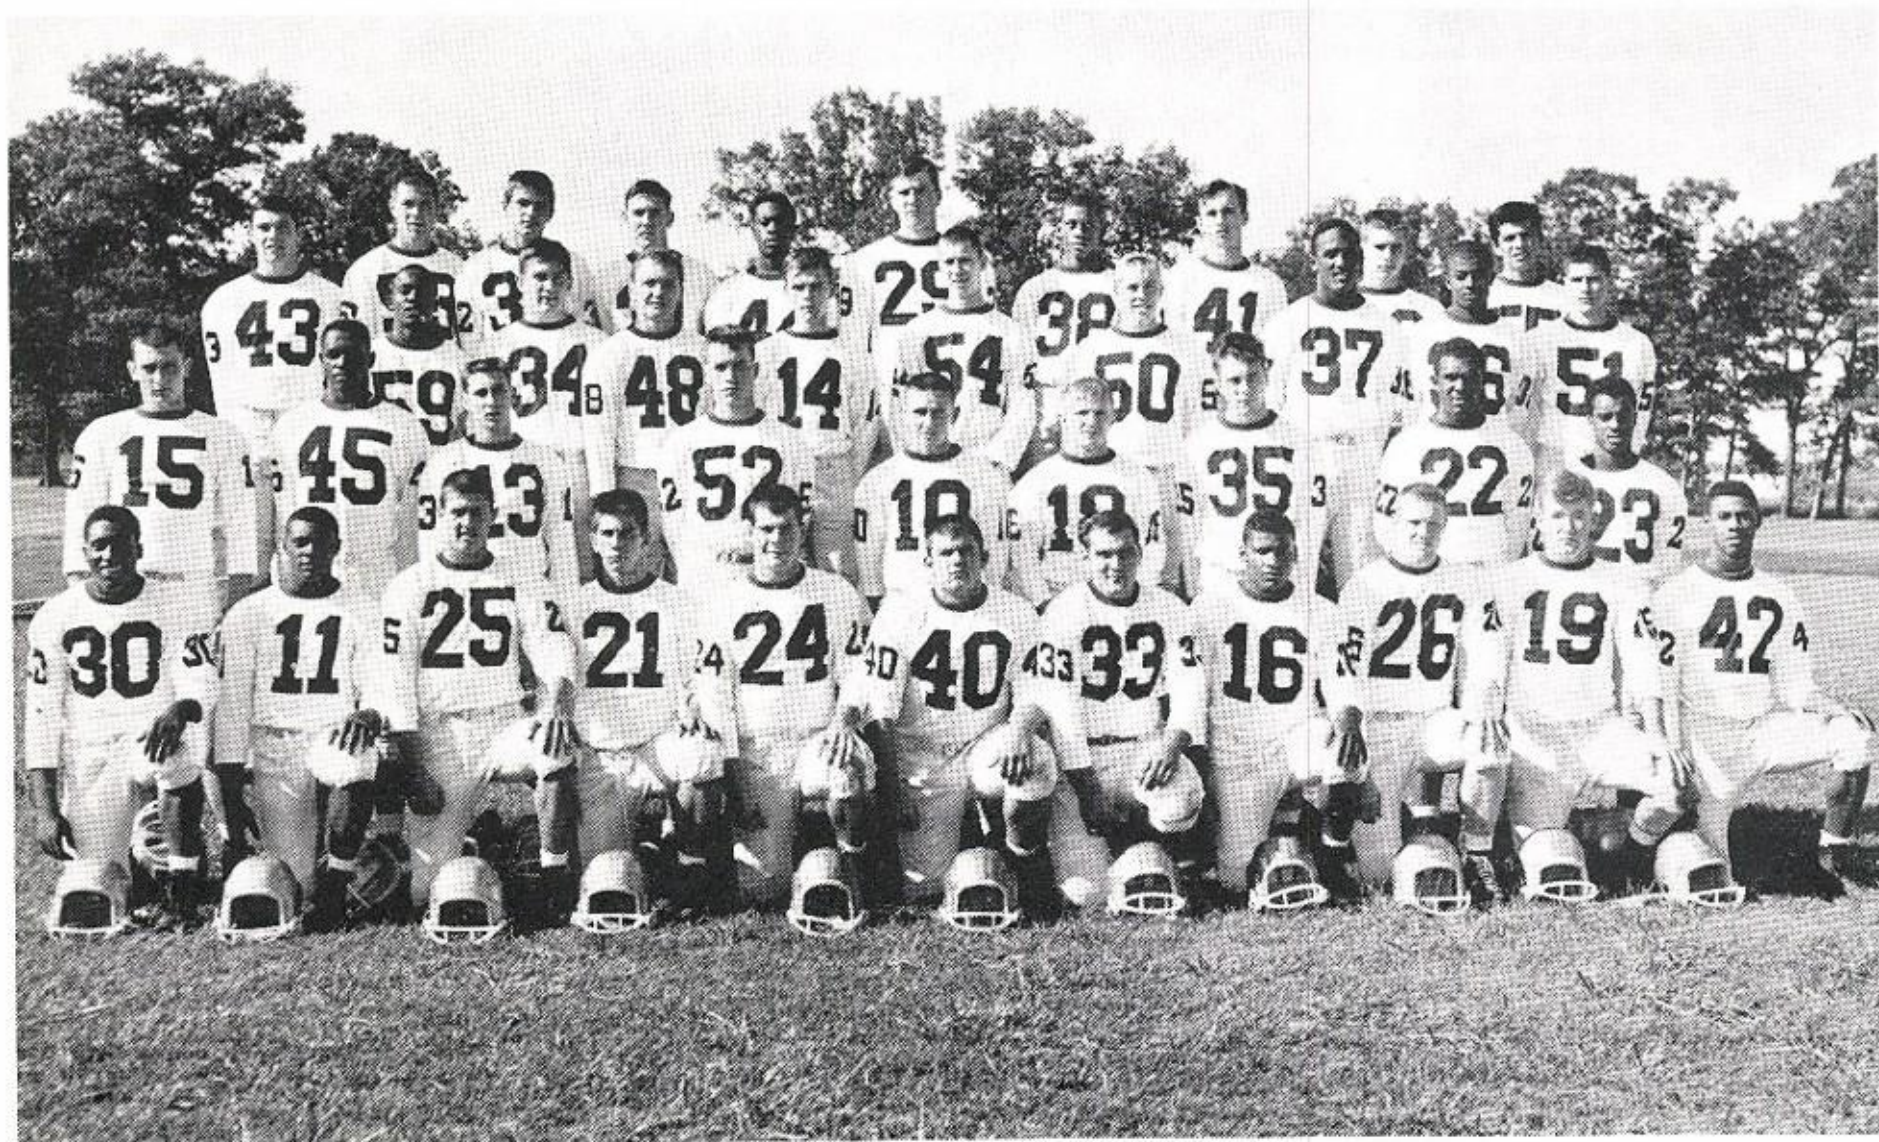

The teams of Washington High have brought us many wonderful victories this year. In years past our teams, such as the football team and basketball team, have done well; however, this year our football team started the season off with a bang by winning the Eastern Division and Northern Indiana High School Conference. To the Senior Class this was a mark of greatness for the team. As a matter of fact, this was great to the whole school because this meant a good beginning to a good year.

We know well, too, that all the other teams of Washington High School have done their best to bring WHS MANY VICTORIES----LOSSES FEW.

Washington High Schools 1961-62 basketball season ended with a 10-12 record. The round-ballers were very successful in the 1961 campaign, compiling a 7-3 record, then an eight game losing streak hit the team. Victories over Gary Roosevelt and Laporte were highlights of the season. But the victory over highly rated Central was the brightest spot. The sectionals were played for the first time at Washington. Washington defeated Riley in an overtime, but lost by two points to Adams in the final quarter. With about half of this year's varsity returning, WHS should look forward to a successful season next year.

A TEACHER'S VIEW

Ever patient, ever eager to help; the teachers we will always be indebted to.

A teacher's responsibility doesn't begin and end in his classroom, nor does his interest in us lie in teaching only. If you will but look back and remember, who were the ones to sponsor our clubs and activities, to guide us through periods of uncertainty, to cheer for and with us at the games, to cry and laugh with us at our plays and proms, our teachers were always there.

Ever remembering, ever grateful, the class of '62 sends "thanks" to you.

THE CLASS WE KNEW

in '62"

Yes, this is the class we knew in '62. This is the class we shall remember. Together we shared ideas, jokes; together we cheered our teams to victory, and most important we studied together to pass our tests successfully.

Individually our Senior Class has done well, and we will well remember all four years of fun, sweat, and making the grade.

So, we would like to present the class we knew in '62 and their part of Washington High which is now a memory.

UNDERCLASSMEN TOO

Those we leave behind, the underclassmen. They now, will fill our shoes and carry on the principles of loyalty and honor that we leave to the credit of Washington High School.

Underclassmen are a multitude of things. They are Washington High now and in years to follow. They will compose its teams, its clubs, its classes. They will remain with us as memories of PA contests, bewildered faces, sincere smiles, and helping hands.
